

Project/Course Overview:

Capstone portfolio/reel building experience. Various, defined entertainment art/animation topics will be covered as it relates to the topics of the course. This course is designed to give upper division BFA/MFA students the opportunity to build and refine their portfolios. The topics covered in the class reflect the interests of the students enrolled. Each student will draft a personal study plan to be approved by the instructor.