

Cal State Fullerton

Art 353A/B is a two semester animated short film production experience. The first semester focuses on animation preproduction, visual development art is generated, characters developed and designed, stories written and storyboards drawn, layout designed, and test animation completed. The second semester is devoted to animation production and postproduction/sound design.